

Yau Tsim Mong District 4 Area Committees Cantonese Opera 2023 in celebration of the establishment of the HKSAR

The Yau Tsim Mong District Office, together with the four Area Committees, will organize two free performances of Cantonese opera for the local community, one day and one night. The theme of the performances will be the celebration of the Establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. The day performance will be a folk opera with youth participation, while the evening performance will be a full-length comedy-based drama. Tickets will be distributed through committees, local organizations, elderly and youth organizations funded by the Social Welfare Department, and online.
